Summary of Rights Under the California Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act | California Civil Code § 1786.22

You have a right under California law to inspect files maintained on you by an investigative consumer reporting agency pursuant to any of the following procedures, during normal business hours and on reasonable notice:

1. You may personally inspect the files if you provide proper identification (e.g., valid driver's license, social security account number, military identification card, credit cards) and may receive a copy of the file for the actual cost of duplication services provided.
2. You may make a written request, by certified mail and with proper identification, as described above, for copies to be sent to a specified addressee.
3. You may make a written request, with proper identification as described above, for telephone disclosure of a summary of information contained in your files, if any toll charge is prepaid by or charged directly to you.

If you are unable to provide "proper identification" through the types of cards or numbers listed above, the agency may require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history in order to verify your identity.

The agency must provide trained personnel to explain to you any information that the agency is required to furnish to you from your file. The agency also must provide you with a written explanation of any coded information contained in your files at the time your file is provided to you for inspection. You are permitted by law to be accompanied by one other person of your choosing when inspecting your files. That person must furnish reasonable identification. The agency may require you to provide the agency with a written statement granting permission to the agency to discuss your file in such person's presence. The agency also is not required by law to make available to you the sources of information in your files, although such information would be obtainable through discovery procedures in any court action brought under the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act.
